Death Claims N. Ankerson

Nelson Ankerson, 69, a resident of Traverse City for many years, died this morning at Grand Traverse Medical Care Facility after a three-week illness.

Mr. Ankerson was born September 13, 1890, on South Manitou island and lived his entire life in the Grand Traverse region. For the past 30 years he had made his home with a sister, Mrs. Carrie Lyon, of S. Airport road.

Surviving besides Mrs. Lyon are another sister, Mrs. Martha Laird of Traverse City, and several nieces and nephews. One brother, Tom, died in 1951.

The body was taken to Hubbard funeral chapel, where services will be held at 2:00 p.m. Monday, Dr. Howard R. Towne of Traverse City First Congregational church officiating. Burial will be in the family lot in Oakwood cemetery.

Elmwood Has Biggest Gain

LELAND — Elmwood township adjacent to Traverse City on the north, leads all Leelanau county townships in population gain over the past 24 years, according to census figures reported this week to Elmer L. Dalton, county clerk.

Elmwood gained 151 and the county's net gain was 561, from 9,647 to 10,210.

Seven townships show gains, while four show losses. Empire increased by 251, Solon 92, Glen Arbor 65, Bingham 46, Leland 28, and Kasson 28.

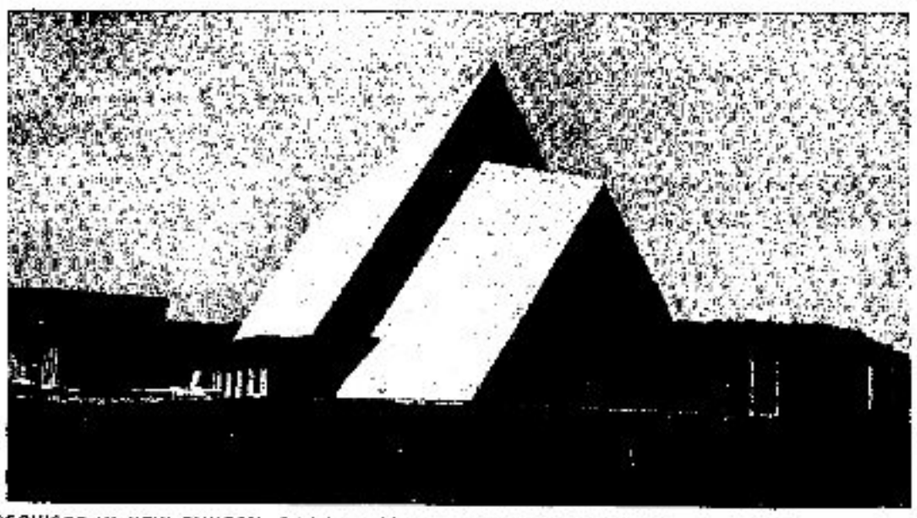
Townships losing population were Leelanau 141, Suttons Bay 71, Centerville 31, and Cleveland 17.

Meeting Monday at Peninsula School

An informational meeting preceding the annual school election in Peninsula Township will be held Monday night, June 6, at Old Mission Peninsula School.

Purpose of the meeting is to present facts to the voters on the school budget for the coming year. The school board and superintendent will be present to answer questions.

At the election one week later, operating millage will be voted upon and two school board members elected. Mrs. Wunsch and Rebecca Mackie are unopposed for reelection.



SERVICES IN NEW CHURCH—Initial worship services will be held in the new First Congregational church Sunday. Because the sanctuary is not completed, the services will be held in the fellowship hall. First service will be at 8:00 a.m., and the second at 11:00 a.m. This picture was made from the south west showing the sanctuary (foreground) and the fellowship hall. (Record-Eagle Photo)

W. D. Cameron Taken by Death

William D. Cameron, 62, president East Lansing Insurance Group executive and former Traverse Citizen, died Friday morning at a Lansing hospital.

Son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Archie Cameron and a graduate of Traverse City high school, he was married in the former Verta Jordan of this area, and had been active in Traverse City fraternal and service organizations, including Lodge 333 F & A M, Voiture 40 of 8, Bowen-Holliday post 33 of the American Legion, and Blue Goose International.

Mr. Cameron was a Navy veteran of World War I, a member of the Traverse City Naval Militia, and attended the University of Michigan.

He was resident secretary, in East Lansing, and regional manager of Boston-Old Colony Insurance Company, was a member of the Michigan Fire Underwriters Association, and a past president of the Michigan Fire Prevention Association.

He is survived by his widow; one son, Dr. W. J. Cameron of Kansas City; one daughter, Mrs. Robert Phillips of East Lansing; four grandchildren; and one sister, Miss Margaret Cameron of Chicago.

Funeral services will be held at 2:00 p.m. Monday at Bates-Loudley chapel in Lansing, Rev. Gordon N. Jones of Lansing All-Saints Episcopal church officiating.

Graveside services under the auspices of Bowen-Holliday American Legion post, will be held at Oakwood cemetery in Traverse City at 2:00 p.m. Tuesday.

Rites Monday for Mrs. Moon

Funeral services for Mrs. Marie Moon, well-known local resident, whose death occurred Friday morning at Munson hospital will be held Monday afternoon at 2:30 at Grace Episcopal church with the Rev. Francis J. Foley, officiating. Burial will be made in the family lot in Oakwood cemetery.

A requiem eucharist service will be held at the Episcopal church Monday morning at 10:10.

Shanty Fire

Fire believed to have been set by children damaged the door of a small fish shanty on the property of Don Powell, 1141 Rose street, at 3:10 p.m. Friday, Traverse City fire department said today.

Big Rapids Gets Dialing System

BIG RAPIDS, June 4—(UPI)—The first all-number dialing system in a Michigan community starts here tomorrow.

Inauguration of the new system coincides with the conversion of Big Rapids from manual to dial telephones.

The all-number calling system uses seven numerals, instead of two letters and five numbers.

The Michigan Bell Telephone Co. says the all-number system provides more prefix codes than can be provided under the name-and-number setup.

Three Fined

BELLAIRE — Three Bellaire youths were fined on liquor law violations yesterday upon arraignment in Justice Roy Phillips court.

Roger C. Gaffney, 20, and David Rodney Worstell, 20, pleaded guilty to being minors in possession of alcohol in a car, and each was ordered to pay fine and costs of $55 or serve 15 days in jail.

Donald Dennis Wilke, 23, pleaded guilty to furnishing beer to the minors. He was ordered to pay the fine and costs at $65 and serve ten days in jail.
