THE Clam Lake News learns that th American House in that village is to be hereafter kept on temperance principles. THE Sheridan made her first trip down the bay on Wednesday, carrying a large man's opinion. Almost every number of amount of freight and a goodly number of the paper has one or more articles bearing passengers. THE ice went out of the west arm o the Bay Sunday, May 4th, after covering it for 107 days, 19 days longer than the record shows of any previous year. Our column of "Letters from the People" has become a valuable feature in the HERALD. Let those speak through it who have anything valuable to say.

A TELEGRAM from Boston, dated May 6 says Oakes Ames had been struck with paralysis, and remains unconscious, with symptoms critical in the extreme. ANY person wishing to purchase a house and lot in this village, or a farm in the heart of the fruit region, is referred to Mr. J. Trombley's advertisement in this week's FIRST ARRIVAL.—The schooner Reindeer arrived at Elk Rapids on Sunday, from Es-

LAKE COUNTY STAR.—We have received the first number of an eight column paper of the above name, published at Green Dell, county seat of Lake county. It is published by Radeliffe & Co. and the initial number gives promise of usefulness and success.

WE learn from Mr. M. M. Stimson, engiand again dropped to the ground This neer of the G. R. & I. R. There are about 25 miles of the road now ready for the iron, and the grading still farther north is being pushed rapidly forward.

WE learn from the Clam Lake News that a Mrs Weller, of that village, accidentally | charged the enemy in front, and, by a well shot herself, a few days since, with a pistol which she was handling. The ball entered the stomach, passed through the body and lodged under the skin near the backbone. At the latest accounts strong hopes were entertained of her recovery.

THE CITY OF TRAVERSE.—This noble steamer arrived from Chicago on Wednesday evening. Since leaving here in the fall she has been thoroughly re-painted, and in all respects put in first rate order. Her engineer, Mr. D. Bauld, who knows all about such things, says she is in better condition than ever before. The City of Traverse brought large quantities of merchandise for Haunah, Lay & Co., S. C. Fuller, Dexter & Noble, and some for other parties. She will load with lumber, and leave for Chicago Satur. day evening.
