

—Men have been crossing on the ice from the South Manitou islands for over two weeks. They are expecting to come over with teams this week and bring some of their wreck corn.—The mercury stood some twelve degrees below zero Wednesday, being colder than it has been before this winter.

ONCE IN A WHILE.

GLEN ARBOR.

MANITOU NOTES—GLEN ARBOR ITEMS.

The South Manitou Island was annexed to Leelanaw county a short time since, and pedestrians commenced crossing on the ice on 24 inst. To-day Messrs. Ehle and Kitchen came from the Island to Glen Arbor, and report the ice good and will next week open a road for teams to travel on.—There is no sickness on the Island.—There is plenty of corn for sale, both dry and partly dry, saved from the wreck of the Taylor.—The snow is two feet deep on the Island.

Grand Traverse Herald
Feb 3 1881

Men have been crossing on the ice from the South Manitou islands for over two weeks. They are expected to come over with teams this week and bring some of their wreck corn. – The mercury stood some twelve degrees below zero Wednesday, being colder than it has been before this winter.

Once in a While.

GLEN ARBOR
MANITOU NOTES – GLEN ARBOR ITEMS

The South Manitou Island was annexed to Leelanau county a short time since, the pedestrians commenced crossing on the ice on 24 inst. To-day Messrs. Ehle and Kitchen came from the Island to Glen Arbor, and report the ice good and will next week open a road for teams to travel on. – There is no sickness on the island. – There is plenty of wreck corn for sale, both dry and partly dry, saved from the wreck of the Taylor. – The snow is two feet deep on the Island.

(transcript)